VOLUMES 45 TO 49 INDEX BY BODY SYSTEM

BILIARY TRACT, LIVER, SPLEEN AND PANCREAS

	Vol:Page
Abdominal ultrasonography following laparoscopic cholecystectomy	47:111
Accumulation of ^{99m}Tc-hydroxymethylene diphosphanate by liver metastases of prostatic adenocarcinoma	47:209
Adjunct to laparoscopic splenectomy – a new role for interventional radiology	48:213
Alveolar hydatid disease of the liver: computed tomography and transabdominal ultrasound with histopathological correlation	46:97
Amoebic liver abscess complicated by a hepatoduodenal fistula	46:142
Asymptomatic aneurysmal intrahepatic portohepatic venous shunt – diagnosis by ultrasound	49:64
Biliary peritonitis following wallstent insertion	48:210
Broken intracholedochal stent	45:46
Characterization of pancreatic and bile duct tumours by duplex Doppler	45:181
Comparison of MR and duplex Doppler ultrasound for vascular assessment prior to orthotopic liver transplantation	49:307
Comparison of MR and CT scanning in severe acute pancreatitis: initial experiences	48:111
Direct cellulitic spread as presentation of a liver abscess – ultrasound CT and contrast imaging	47:364
Doppler ultrasound of the hepatic veins: normal appearances	45:223
Duplex Doppler detection of hepatic artery thrombosis following liver transplantation	47:180
Duplex Doppler measurements of the portal vein in portal hypertension	48:311
Duplex Doppler ultrasound for the detection of vascular occlusion following liver transplantation in children	46:38
Dynamic MRI of the pancreas – gadolinium enhancement in normal tissue	49:104
Ectopic hepatocellular carcinoma arising from the left diaphragm	49:579
Embolization in the palliation of complications of inoperable primary pancreatic neoplasms	49:784
Emphysematous tuberculous pancreatitis diagnosis by ultrasound and computed tomography	48:286
Failed metallic biliary stents	49:857
Focal echogenic lesions in the spleen in sickle cell disease	47:114
Free intra-peritoneal gall-stone following laparoscopic cholecystectomy	48:258
Granular cell tumour of the biliary tree – the sonographic appearance	49:503
Haemorrhagic hepatic adenoma – MR features	49:719
Hepatic arterial haemodynamics changes following intra-arterial angiotensin II infusion: duplex/colour Doppler sonography	47:321
Hepatic ultrasound findings in a case of toxocariasis	46:135
Imaging islet cell tumours	49:295
Imaging of bile duct hamartomas	45:203
Inflammatory pseudotumour of liver – review of clinical and radiological features	49:575
Intrahepatic biliary stones: imaging features and a possible relationship with Ascaris lumbricoides	47:325
Intraluminal bile duct hepatocellular carcinoma	49:886
Investigation of chyluria	49:137
Juvenile xanthogranuloma with pulmonary, subcutaneous and hepatic involvement	49:498
Lipoma of the liver – ultrasound, CT and MR imaging	45:353
Liver adenomatosis presenting as multiple calcified masses	45:206
Liver hamartomas in tuberous sclerosis	47:421
Local treatment of colorectal liver metastases: a comparison of interstitial laser photocoagulation (ILP) and percutaneous alcohol injection (PAI)	48:166
Localization of occult insulinoma by intra-arterial stimulation with calcium and venous sampling technique	46:55
MR imaging of a carcinoid tumour of the liver	47:287
Multiple hepatic and pulmonary haemangioblastomas – a new manifestation of von Hippel-Lindau disease	45:37
Obstructive jaundice secondary to an intussuscepting duodenal villous adenoma	46:63
Palliation of inoperable biliary obstruction with self-expanding metal endoprostheses: a review of 77 patients	47:245
Pancreatic and renal mobility	45:88
Pancreatic mediastinal pseudocyst – an unusual cause of palpitations	45:128
Pancreatic pseudocysts: treated with dual drainage	45:92
Papillary adenoma of the gall-bladder in a child of 9 years	47:432
Percutaneous biliary drainage without lateral fluoroscopy	46:202
Percutaneous catheter drainage of amoebic liver abscess	45:187
Percutaneous cholecystostomy in acute acalculous cholecystitis	45:273
Periportal fibrosis secondary to transfusion siderosis in two patients with acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) treated with zidovudine – a confusing ultrasound appearance	48:125
Post-laparoscopic cholecystectomy bilomas – preliminary experience	46:333
Proton NMR relaxation times in the normal human liver at 0.08T	45:302
Radiological and pathological features of AIDS-related polypoid cholangitis	48:307
Radiological aspects of solvent dissolution of gall-stones	48:172
Radiological investigation in laparoscopic compared with conventional cholecystectomy – an early assessment	45:267
Radiology of excessive mucus production as a complication of congenital bile duct abnormalities	46:43
Role of hepatic arterial embolization in the management of ruptured hepatocellular carcinoma	48:163
Role of hepatic vein Doppler in diagnosing acute rejection following paediatric liver transplantation	45:228
Scintigraphic detection of splenosis: superiority of tomographic selective spleen scintigraphy	49:115
Simple liver cyst masquerading as a gastric leiomyoma – a diagnostic pitfall	48:288
Staging of hepatocellular carinoma	47:297
Staging of pancreatic adenocarcinoma	47:373
Torsion of the gall-bladder on ultrasound – differentiation from acalculous cholecystitis	47:285
Transjugular liver biopsy: a review of 200 biopsies	45:238
Treatment of inoperable hepatocellular carcinoma by transcatheter arterial chemoembolization using an emulsion of Cisplatin in iodized oil and gelfoam	47:315
Tumefactive biliary sludge, a sonographic pseudotumour appearance in the common bile duct	47:251
Ultrasonographic hepatic pseudolesions: normal parenchyma mimicking mass lesions in fatty liver	49:326
Ultrasonography in traumatic splenic rupture	46:391
Ultrasound in the diagnosis of gall-bladder carcinoma in Chinese patients	48:41
Ultrasound demonstration of traumatic fracture of the pancreas with pancreatic duct disruption	47:434
Ultrasound findings in hepatic mycobacterial infections in patients with acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS)	47:36
Unusual presentation of splenic hamartoma; computed tomography and ultrasonic findings	45:410
